Litany of the Circle

Every part of the earth is sacred.
Every shining pine needle, every sandy shore.
Every mist in the dark woods.
Every clearing and humming insect is holy.
The rocky crest, the juices of the meadow, the beasts and all the people.
All belong to the same family.
Teach your children that the earth is our mother.
Whatever befalls the earth befalls the children of the earth.
The water's murmur is the voice of our father's father.
We are part of the earth and the earth is part of us.
The rivers are our brothers, they quench our thirst.
The perfumed flowers are our sisters.
The air is precious.
For all of us the same breath.
The wind that gave our grandparents breath
also receives their last sigh.
The wind gave our children the spirit of life.
This we know, the earth does not belong to us
We belong to the earth
This we know, all things are connected.
Like the blood that unites one family.
All things are connected.
Our God is the same God whose compassion is equal for all.
For we did not weave the web of life
We are merely a strand in it.
Whatever we do to the web
We do to ourselves.
Let us give thanks for the web and the circle that connects us.
Thanks be to the Creator, the Creator of all.
(based on a speech by Chief Seattle 1850)

God

For Friendship

May you be blessed with good friends,
And learn to be a good friend yourself,
Journeying to that place in your soul where
There is love, warmth and feeling.
May this change you.

May it transfigure what is negative, distant
Or cold within your heart.

May you be brought in to real passion, kindness
And belonging.

May you treasure your friends.
May you be good to them, be there for them
And receiving all the challenges, truth and light you need.

May you never be isolated but know the embrace
Of your Anam Cara.
