PRAYER

God our Father
Continue to make your presence felt among us at this moment in our history.
Be close to all those charged with discerning the way forward for our nation and our people.
Remind us of the many talents and opportunities that continue to be found in the citizens and resources of our country.
In your son Jesus Christ, may we be mindful of the need for solidarity with one another, most especially the vulnerable and the needy.
Steady our nerve in these days and point out to us the shortcomings of panic and fear alone.
Help us to achieve a true and sustainable perspective as our future path unfolds.
May each of us realise afresh our ability to make a difference through participation in family, in parish, in the wider community and in our state.
In your Holy Spirit, guide officials and political representatives, local volunteers and community groups.
Mobilise among us a reawakened belief and patriotism as we seek to become again the people you call us to be.
Lead us as committed, charitable and caring citizens, sharers of an agreed, open and workable plan that is respectful and inclusive of all.
Amen.

Advent

Advent is a time for waiting.
I will wait faithfully for slow recognition of the closed doors in my Bethlehem.

Advent is a time of yearning.
I will keep on longing for you.
I will try to do so patiently.

Advent is a time of hoping.
I will seek the strong stirring sureness that it is possible to open doors.

Advent is a time of coming.
I will pray with all the church -
'come, come, come, Lord Jesus,
welcome into my home of love.'

And, Lord, when it is true to say
'this is Christmas Day'
I pray that you will warmly be welcome
in the Bethlehem of my heart,
giving birth in my newly opened places.
