Diploma 2025 It is described as a basic programme in Adult Faith Formation which aims to renew Christian life, refresh faith and promote pastoral leadership. It is presented weekly on Zoom from the Archdiocese of Edinburgh on Thursday eve. 7.30 to 8.30 p.m. with an opportunity for Q/A. Each week an outline of the talk is sent by e-mail. Recorded sessions are also available for the convenience of participants. There are regular breaks during the year as well as at Easter and Summer. A meeting with a Tutor on Zoom takes place after each module every six weeks. There is no formal examination. A group support meeting takes place in Westport after each module for a general review. The cost of the course is 200 sterling (€250) and there is some confidential sponsorship subsidy available for participants. This is an annual programme and it has been in progress over the past three years with around 40 participants. The experience was found both challenging and worthwhile. Resource books will be made available. The vacancies for the course are limited. Early booking is advised by Nov. 8th. Further information is available frtonyking@gmail.com 087 2360272.
