Message from Fr. Anthaiah Pudota.
Dear Parishioners, it's been a year since I commenced my pastoral ministry in the Parish of Williamstown and Glenamaddy. I will work among you genuinely and try to be sincere. I am very happy in the parish.
I am trying to reflect on the past one year and I am very content in myself and with my priestly ministry and I am feeling that I have been welcomed into the parishes and getting to know people around the areas and settling into both parishes. I am also visiting the houses whenever it is possible for me. Thanks for your welcome and your support and encouragement which makes me a good priest among you. Your support always makes me more responsible. I am trying to be in every good occasion/program to be with you so that I can promote the values of the Gospel through my presence as priest. "Behold my mother and my brothers for anyone who does the will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister and mother." (St. Matthew 12: 48 – 50.) I sincerely thank you for being morally in support of me when I lost my own mother. You were all sending me your personal condolences and you were with me in prayers and thoughts at the time of my grief and sorrow. Thank you very much.
My door is always open for new ideas and feel free to speak directly to me or else write a message on a piece of paper with your details addressed to me and I will consider implementing them if that suits the whole parish and not anonymous letters. Thank you everyone Fr. Anthaiah Pudota.
