OUR TALENTS

Whatever our talents – a good mind, a strong healthy body, an even temperament, money: these are given to us to build up the body of Christ.
The more blessings we receive from God, the more blessings we should be for others.
I can do something you cannot do. You can do something I cannot do. Together we can do something beautiful for God. (Mt. Theresa)
The special talents and abilities God has given to us are to be shared, not compared.
The meaning of life is to find your gift. The purpose of life is to give it away.

'A Flower Mister': A wealthy young man was on his way to work when he heard an old lady selling flowers saying to him, 'A flower Mister!'. He brushed her aside but was afterwards troubled about this, as it appeared to him on reflection that he had lost his composure. On subsequent days he began to notice the old lady even though she still disturbed his usual calm control. She, with her gentle smile in spite of her age and occupation confronted him with something that disturbed him. She was such a contradiction of all he stood for, his cold brusque manner, his youth and his successful career. As time went by be noticed he was less irked by her and that he made it his business to pass her way each day. It was as if he needed to listen to something important, she was saying to him. Then one day he found himself planning a surprise for her and so on his way to work he met her smile with a rose he had gone to great trouble to buy as it was the first of the new season. It also marked the beginning of a new season in his own heart.

It Takes a Lifetime
It takes a lifetime to learn how to live,
How to share and how to give.
How to face the tragedy that comes your way,
How to find the courage to face each new day.
How to smile when your heart is sore,
How to go on when you can take no more.
How to laugh when you want to cry,
How to be brave when you say goodbye.
How to still love when your loss is so great,
How to forgive when your urge is to hate.
How to be sure that God's really there,
How to find Him, seek Him in prayer.
